

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Privacy Law protections. I am happy to report that I have not received any solicitation phone calls since the Indiana law was implemented. I do not want anything less.